TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT OF TEMPORARY (Locum) WORKERS

1.0 DEFINITIONS

1.1 In these Terms of Engagement the following definitions apply

"Assignment" means the period during which the Temporary Worker is supplied to render services to the Client

"Client" means the person, firm or corporate body requiring the services of the Temporary Worker [together with any subsidiary or associated company as defined by the Companies Act 1985]

"Employment Business" means UK International Nursing Agency Ltd. (Medical Division) Mayapur House, 2A Station Road, Radlett, Herts WD7 8JX [together with any subsidiary or associated company as defined by the Companies Act 1985]

"Temporary Worker" means locum doctor (you).

1.2 Unless context otherwise requires references to the singular include the plural and references to the masculine include the feminine and vice versa.

1.3 The headings contained in these Terms are for convenience only and do not affect their interpretation.

2. THE CONTRACT

These Terms constitute a contract for services between our Employment Business acting for the client and the Temporary Worker and they govern all assignments undertaken by the Temporary Worker to the client. However, no contract shall exist between our Employment Business and the Temporary Worker between Assignments.

2.2 For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms shall not give rise to a contract of employment between our Employment Business and the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker is engaged as a self-employed worker, although our Employment Business is required to make statutory deductions from his remuneration in accordance with clause 4.1

2.3 No variation or alteration of these Terms shall be valid unless approved by our Employment Business in writing.

3. ASSIGNMENTS

3.1 Our Employment Business will endeavor to obtain suitable Assignments for the Temporary Worker to work as a Locum Doctor.

3.2 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available and agrees that suitability shall be determined solely by our Employment Business; and that our Employment Business shall incur no liability to the Temporary Worker should it fail to offer opportunities to work in the above category or in any other category.

3.3 For the purpose of calculating the average number of weekly hours worked by the Temporary Worker on an Assignment, the start date for the relevant averaging period under the Working Time Regulations shall be the date on which the Temporary Worker commences the first Assignment.

4. RENUMERATION

- 4.1 Our Employment Business shall pay to the Temporary Worker remuneration calculated at an hourly rate, to the nearest quarter hour (see pay schedule). Payments are made weekly in arrears subject to receipt of correctly completed time sheets in respect of PAYE Class 1 National Insurance Contributions and Income Tax pursuant to S 1 34 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 and any other deductions which the employment Business may be required by law to make.
- 4.2 Subject to any statutory entitlement under the relevant legislation, the Temporary Worker is not entitled to receive payment from the Employment Business or Clients for time not spent on Assignment, whether in respect of holidays, illness or absence for any other reason unless otherwise agreed.

5.0 STATUTORY LEAVE

- 5.1 Under the Working Time Regulations 1998, the Temporary Worker is entitled to 4 weeks' paid leave per leave year. All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the leave year in which it accrues and none may be carried forward to the next year.
- 5.2 The right to paid leave only arises once the Temporary Worker has been engaged on Assignments through our Employment Business and in a non-training grade position (i.e. Consultant). Entitlement to paid leave accrues in proportion to the amount of time worked by the Temporary Worker on Assignment during the leave year. The amount of the payment to which the Temporary Worker is entitled in respect of such leave is calculated in accordance with and in proportion to the number of hours, which is worked on assignments. Payment in respect of the entitlement to paid leave shall be made as part of the Temporary Worker' s hourly rate.
- 5.3 Where the Temporary Worker wishes to take any leave to which he is entitled, he should notify the Employment Business in writing of the dates of his intended absence. The amount of notice, which the Temporary Worker is required to give, should be at least twice the length of the period of leave that he wishes to take. Unless the Employment Business informs the Temporary Worker in writing that it is not possible for him to take leave on the specified dates, the Temporary Worker shall be entitled to take up his notified leave entitlement
- 5.4 None of the provisions of this clause regarding the statutory entitlement to paid leave shall affect the Temporary Worker' s status as a self-employed worker.

6. SICKNESS ABSENCE

- 6.1 Temporary workers are not entitled to sick pay

7 TIME SHEETS

- 7.1 At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of one week or less or is completed before the end of a week) the Temporary Worker shall deliver to our Employment Business his time sheet duly completed to indicate the number of hours worked by him during the preceding week (or such lesser period) and signed by an authorised representative of the Client. Failure to submit a time sheet for hours worked may delay payment for those hours.
- 7.2 For the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, the Temporary Worker' s working time shall only consist of those periods during which he is carrying out his activities or duties for the Client as part of the Assignment. Time spent traveling to the Client' s premises, lunch breaks and other rest breaks shall not count as part of the Temporary worker' s working time for these purposes.

8. CONDUCT OF ASSIGNMENTS

The Temporary Worker is not obliged to accept any Assignment offered by the Employment Business but if he does so, during every assignment and afterwards where appropriate, he will

- (a) co-operate with the Client' s staff and accept the direction supervision and control of any responsible person in the Client' s organisation;
- (b) observe any relevant rules and regulations of the Client' s establishment to which attention has been drawn or which the Temporary Worker might reasonably be expected to ascertain;
- (c) unless arrangements have been made to the contrary, conform to the normal hours of work in force at the Client' s establishment;
- (d) take all reasonable steps to safeguard his own safety and the safety of any other person who may be present or affected by his actions on the Assignment and comply with the health and safety policies of the Client;
- (e) not engage in any conduct detrimental to the interests of the Client;
- (f) not at any time divulge to any person, nor use for his own or any other person' s benefit, any confidential information relating to the Client' s or our Employment Business' employees, business affairs, transactions or finances.

8.2 If the Temporary Worker is unable for any reason to attend work during the course of an assignment he should inform the client or the Employment Business no later than 1 hour from the commencement of the assignment or shift

9. TERMINATION

9.1 Our Employment Business or the Client may, without prior notice or liability, terminate the Temporary Workers Assignment at anytime.

9.2 The Temporary Worker may terminate an Assignment by giving the following notice period

1.	less than 1 week	1
2.	less than 2 weeks	2
3.	more than 2 weeks	5

9.3 If the Temporary Worker does not inform the client or our Employment Business (in accordance with clause 8.2) should they be unable to attend work during the course of an assignment this will be treated as termination of the assignment by the Temporary Worker in accordance with clause 9.2 unless the Temporary Worker can show that exceptional circumstances prevented him from complying with clause 8.2

9.4 If the Temporary Worker is absent during the course of an assignment and the contract has not been otherwise terminated the employment business will be entitled to terminate the contract in accordance with clause 9.1 if the work to which the absent worker was assigned is no longer available for the Temporary Worker.
